

„Cheltenham“

The magnificent Racecourse, offers 15 days of racing in a season lasting from October to April. Highlight of the racing calendar is the National Hunt Festival in March, which features the famous Cheltenham Gold Cup and Champion Hurdle. Specifically, this painting depicts two of the great horses in the 2000 Gold Cup: Florida Pearl, ridden by Paul Carberry, and the eventual victor, Looks Like Trouble, ridden by Richard Johnson and wearing number 7.

Limited Edition 495

Image Size: ca. 60 x 40 cm

(LIM486)

© Felix Rosenstiel's Widow and Son Ltd