

„Cool Dawn“

Cool Dawn depicts the fairy-tale victory of Cool Dawn, ridden by Andrew Thornton, in the 1998 Cheltenham Gold Cup on Thursday March 20th 1998. Trained in Dorset by Robert Alner and carrying the colours of owner, Dido Harding, Cool Dawn's romantic story stunned the world of racing. Bought cheaply as "a nice safe lady's ride" to be ridden by the owner in point-to-points, Cool Dawn's victory, at odds of 25-1, brought him the most prized trophy from the major meeting in National Hunt racing. Limited Edition 350 on Paper, 50 on Canvas. Image Size: ca. 53 x 43 cm (LIM457)
